

MESSAGE FROM

MIKALAI STATKEVICH

IMPRISONED LEADER OF THE BSDP, BELARUS

Dear friends,

I greet you on behalf of the struggling Belarusian Social Democracy.

Unfortunately, the places of our struggle are not only electoral meetings and city streets, but also prison cells.

When a society is mortally afraid, the courage can be returned not only with the help of words, but rather with the help of a personal example. And primarily, this should be examples of leaders as the public attention is drawn to them.

The situation in our country forces us to use these methods of struggle and to assume the consequences.

Your solidarity with our struggle helps us to realize that we have support of many people all around the world and that the truth is on our side.

Thank you for this!

Mogiliov,

Prison №4
